Key issues

Companies seeking to attract international investors or to have them remain as shareholders are expected to maintain a sustainable and transparent relationship with these capital markets players. Investors and analysts should be able to access detailed and updated information as regards the company's financial performance, as well as regarding its medium to long-term strategy and related quantitative targets. Furthermore, it is also key for a company to report on its strategy and performance on Environmental, Social and Governance aspects. Such information should be made accessible through communication channels such as reports or dedicated pages on the website, while an investor relations team or department would be set up within the company.

Company performance

Enel Chile achieved an advanced performance in the Investor Relations issues. The Company has allocated responsibilities over Investor Relations to its CFO, and has established a dedicated IR team, whose individual contact details are published on the website. Enel is transparent on most of the key elements of its Corporate Governance framework and describes significant elements of its markets' context. The Company provides relevant information on its financial and ESG KPIs. Even though Enel Chile set up comprehensive tools to promote the continuous follow up on its ESG strategies, but only set up few tools to promote its corporate events. Finally, Enel Chile adopted few elements for an open and transparent communication with shareholders.
